Description

Words of advice from Dr. Burrell:

You must understand that . . .

1. Nothing in your life has prepared you for this!
2. You're going to have quick failures!
3. Failure is only feedback!
4. You will have to re-define success!

A seminar class that coincides with student teaching and internship experiences.

CPSE 490 is a companion course to your student teaching and intern experience. The Student Teaching/Intern Handbook outlines the goals and objectives for the student teaching/intern courses (CPSE 487R or 496R).

Prerequisites

Completion of special education program.

Learning Outcomes

Basis for Special Education practice

Models, theories, and philosophies that form the basis for special education practice.

Rights and responsibilities

Rights and responsibilities of students, parents, teachers, and other professionals, and schools related to exceptional learning needs.

Teacher attitudes and behaviors

Teacher attitudes and behaviors that influence behavior of individuals with exceptional learning needs. Social skills needed for educational and other environments.

Standards

National, state or provincial, and local curricula standards. As well as organizations to support individuals with special needs.

Materials for daily instruction

Prepare and organize materials to implement daily instruction.

Specialized materials

Develop or modify specialized materials for individuals with disabilities.

Learning environment

Create a safe, equitable, positive, and supportive learning environment in which diversities are valued.

Continuum of lifelong professional development

Continuum of lifelong professional development.

Grading Policy

Grading your performance is a complex process. As your teacher, I consider myself a mentor, but as your evaluator I must be as impartial and objective as possible. Your grades will reflect both effort and achievement. There will be no extra credit offered in this class.

Participation Policy

Course Expectations:

- Adhere to the BYU Honor Code on and off campus.
- Attend all class sessions
- Actively participate in all learning activities and discussions
- Be prepared for each class by completing the assigned readings from texts and handouts
- Be professional in typed written assignments: proof-read prior to submission. Reports should be free of spelling, grammatical, and typographical errors.
- Hand in all assignments on time
- Additional objectives for this course:
- Participation in class discussion
- Email weekly reflection journals
- Consider legal issues, share concerns and ideas, and ask a question
- Consider math curriculum and instruction, share ideas, and ask a question
- Read articles from professional publications relevant to the needs of special educators and students with disabilities

Attendance Policy

Absence and Tardies affect your class participation points---One point is possible if you are actively participating during class, one point for arriving on time, one point for completing all of the assigned readings BEFORE class and one point for staying until the end of class (no partial points will be awarded). Assignments are to be handed in at the beginning of class on the due date designated by the instructor (this applies in case of absences as well). Assignments will be lowered 10% for each day late. No assignments will be accepted after the last day of class.

Classroom Procedures

Please turn off all cell phones and beepers during class time. Make sure I have your email address. Special announcements regarding this class will be sent via email to you and you will be responsible for their content!

Working with members with Disabilities in The Church

Oct
09

Due: Monday, Oct 09 at 4:59 pm

Please select one of the two following case studies accompanied with the resources below, and write a one page response on how you could best support the needs of the leaders and parents. Be sure to cite how you used the resources provided to formulate your response.

Case Study #1:

A Primary President comes to you with concerns about a child named Jose in Sunbeams who has recently been diagnosed with Autism. In his last ward, his parents were asked to just stay with him in nursery at all times. In his new ward, the parents and his leaders would like to see him more fully integrated with his peers without having to have his parents right beside him. Jose gets easily over stimulated with noises and people, he struggles with sitting in his seat longer than a few minutes at a time, gets extremely bothered when things interrupt the typical routine and has a tendency to throw small objects because he likes to watch as they move through the air.

The Primary President has a background in Journalism and does not even know where to begin on how to work with a child with a disability. She has come to you because of your training in education at Brigham Young University. She would like to know what she could do to help Jose successfully access Primary to his fullest extent possible.

OR

Case Study #2:

A Primary President comes to you with concerns about an 8 year old child named Sterling who has difficulty reading and is frequently disruptive in class. In his last ward, his parents were asked to just stay with him through their meeting times. In his new ward, the parents and his leaders would like to see him more fully integrated with his peers without having to have his parents with him. Sterling gets bored easily and frequently refuses to read any of the class materials. He makes noises and bothers the kids who sit next to him for the majority of the time.

The Primary President has a background in Journalism and does not even know where to begin on how to work with a child like Sterling. Sterling's parents are also frustrated, and his mom is frequently seen leaving church crying because she does not know how to handle him and help his primary teacher. The parents and primary president have come to you because of your training in education at Brigham Young University. She would like to know what she could do to help Sterling successfully access Primary to his fullest extent possible.

Due: Monday, Oct 23 at 11:59 pm

The material and discussions that we have in class will impact your ability to succeed in your student teaching/intern placement. Therefore, participation during CPSE 490 is critical. During each class you will participate in a large or small group discussion. In each session you will rate yourself on your preparation (readings), participation and attendance (including staying for the full duration of class and coming on time) using a scale of 1 to 12. If you are absent you will lose the participation points for that class period.

University Policies

Honor Code

In keeping with the principles of the BYU Honor Code, students are expected to be honest in all of their academic work. Academic honesty means, most fundamentally, that any work you present as your own must in fact be your own work and not that of another. Violations of this principle may result in a failing grade in the course and additional disciplinary action by the university. Students are also expected to adhere to the Dress and Grooming Standards. Adherence demonstrates respect for yourself and others and ensures an effective learning and working environment. It is the university's expectation, and every instructor's expectation in class, that each student will abide by all Honor Code standards. Please call the Honor Code Office at 422-2847 if you have questions about those standards.

Sexual Misconduct

In accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Brigham Young University prohibits sex discrimination against any participant in its education programs or activities. The university also prohibits sexual harassment-including sexual violence-committed by or against students, university employees, and visitors to campus. As outlined in university policy, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking are considered forms of "Sexual Misconduct" prohibited by the university.

University policy requires all university employees in a teaching, managerial, or supervisory role to report all incidents of Sexual Misconduct that come to their attention in any way, including but not limited to face-to-face conversations, a written class assignment or paper, class discussion, email, text, or social media post. Incidents of Sexual Misconduct should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at t9coordinator@byu.edu or (801) 422-8692. Reports may also be submitted through EthicsPoint at <https://titleix.byu.edu/report> (<https://titleix.byu.edu/report>) or 1-888-238-1062 (24-hours a day).

BYU offers confidential resources for those affected by Sexual Misconduct, including the university's Victim Advocate, as well as a number of non-confidential resources and services that may be helpful. Additional information about Title IX, the university's Sexual Misconduct Policy, reporting requirements, and resources can be found at <http://titleix.byu.edu> (<http://titleix.byu.edu>) or by contacting the university's Title IX Coordinator.

Student Disability

Brigham Young University is committed to providing a working and learning atmosphere that reasonably accommodates qualified persons with disabilities. If you have any disability which may impair your ability to complete this course successfully, please contact the University Accessibility Center (UAC), 2170 WSC or 422-2767. Reasonable academic accommodations are reviewed for all students who have qualified, documented disabilities. The UAC can also assess students for learning, attention, and emotional concerns. Services are coordinated with the student and instructor by the UAC. If you need assistance or if you feel you have been unlawfully discriminated against on the basis of disability, you may seek resolution through established grievance policy and procedures by contacting the Equal Employment Office at 422-5895, D-285 ASB.

Respectful Environment

"Sadly, from time to time, we do hear reports of those who are at best insensitive and at worst insulting in their comments to and about others... We hear derogatory and sometimes even defamatory comments about those with different political, athletic, or ethnic views or experiences. Such behavior is completely out of place at BYU, and I enlist the aid of all to monitor carefully and, if necessary, correct any such that might occur here, however inadvertent or unintentional. "I worry particularly about demeaning comments made about the career or major choices of women or men either directly or about members of the BYU community generally. We must remember that personal agency is a fundamental principle and that none of us has the right or option to criticize the lawful choices of another." President Cecil O. Samuelson, Annual University Conference, August 24, 2010

"Occasionally, we ... hear reports that our female faculty feel disrespected, especially by students, for choosing to work at BYU, even though each one has been approved by the BYU Board of Trustees. Brothers and sisters, these things ought not to be. Not here. Not at a university that shares a constitution with the School of the Prophets." Vice President John S. Tanner, Annual University Conference, August 24, 2010
